

For a topic of your choice, come up with an investigation title for each of the common geographical research frameworks listed in the table.

Topic
Comparing two places
Investigating how a place has changed over time
Investigating how the introduction of a human feature affects physical processes
Investigating how changes in physical processes affect people / their behaviour
Investigating how closely a place 'follows' a geographical model
Evaluating the effectiveness of a human intervention	