

In your view, look for human and physical features that are different colours. Write the name of the feature in the right segment of the colour wheel. Then place a circle around anything that is a physical feature and a square around anything that is a human feature.

Key:

physical feature

human feature

