What biotic and abiotic characteristics define this woodland?	How does species diversity change from one part of the woodland to another?	What evidence is there of human disturbance in the woodland?
How many, and which, canopy or forest layers can be seen?	What differences are there between vegetation at the core and at the periphery?	How might future climate changes affect this woodland?
What ecosystem goods and services does this woodland provide?	What evidence is there for resident mammal and bird species?	How have plants and trees adapted to different growing conditions?